QUESTION.—What is thy only comfort in life and death?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation: and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

JANUARY.

A Happy New Year
of Grace and Blessing to all the readers of THE ALMANAC!

THE NEW YEAR.

The New Year comes! all hail!
Go forth, my soul, and give him greeting glad;
Let not the New Year find us sad,
Though all our hopes should fail.
He brings new days wherein we may Do better deeds than those the old year knew,
Be faithful, O my soul! and just and true,
He too shall pass away.

WHAT were the human influences which tended to form
the character of the boy Jesus?
He lived in the country; He belonged to the working-class and learned sympathy with the common people; He was brought up in a godly home;
He attended the worship of God in the synagogue and temple; He was instructed in the Scriptures.

AS dawns the opening of the year before you,
Firm in the faith of Jesus ever stand;
Through all your pathway let the Master lead you,
Follow the guidance of His loving hand.

MANY of the most pious men and women of our day are of those who early formed the habit of regular church attendance; and not a few of those who are to-day successfully preaching the gospel to others, would themselves be walking in the paths of sin, had it not been for the exercise of that parental authority which from early years required their uniform attendance upon the services of God's house.

WILLIAM RUPP, D. D.,

Pittsburg Synod Professor of Practical Theology, Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa.

Almanac for 1895

THE thirty-second issue of this popular year-book of the Reformed Church, goes forth with its usual amount of facts and figures of the Church.
Pastors, consistories, mite and missionary societies should aid in its circulation, that it may do good for the Church.

CHAS. G. FISHER, D. D.,
Editor.

PAY your preacher in full this year if you never did before. He needs it, and your church needs the precious results which would come to it of doing such a proper and right, and possibly unusual thing.

THE training of the home and the characteristics of parents are revealed in the conduct of the children. Tiberius said, as he stood with the empress looking at their child:
"What could be born of us but a monster?"
The conduct of the young Jesus at Jerusalem does credit to Joseph and Mary. He did not turn his steps to the military camps, or the museums, or the palaces, or the stores, but to the temple.
This was evidence that the great subject of conversation in his home was the worship of God.
Unless parents are watchful over themselves, their children will put them to shame in the presence of the world.

LITTLE by little, sure and slow,
We fashion our future of bliss or woe,
As the present passes away.
Our feet are climbing the stairway bright,
Up to the region of endless light,
Or gliding downward into the night,
Little by little, and day by day.

THE year begun how shall it end?

1, variable; 2, 3, 4, rain or snow; 5, 6, 7, cold and clear; 8, misty; 9, 10, snow; 11, 12, 13, clear; 14, 15, cold; 16, 17, 18, misty with snow; 19, 20, clear; 21, 22, stormy; 23, 24, 25, cold and windy; 26, variable. 27, 28, cold.

ALLENTOWN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, ALLENTOWN, PA.; REV. J. W. KNAPPENBERGER, A. M., PRESIDENT.

REFORMED CHURCH MESSENGER.

THE first English periodical of the Reformed Church in this country was published in 1832. It was in the form of a monthly magazine. This subsequently was changed to a semi-weekly, and in 1835 it was changed to a weekly, under the title of THE WEEKLY MESSENGER. Since then it has borne respectively the titles: GERMAN REFORMED MESSENGER, THE MESSENGER, and REFORMED CHURCH MESSENGER, the last being its present title.

Its present title is a significant and appropriate one; first, because it tells of what Church it is the organ, in whose behalf it speaks and whose interest it represents; Second, it is truly a messenger of the Church, and bears to its readers from week to week a supply of good and wholesome reading matter and the news of their own Church.

This being the case, it is the paper for members of the Reformed Church to have and read, particularly those within the bounds of the three Synods: Eastern, Pittsburg, and Potomac, under whose auspices and authority it is published.

Its subscription price is two dollars a year, a little more than four cents per week—in advance. It will be sent to strictly new subscribers at one dollar for the first year. A sample copy can be had by applying to the publishers. Address, REFORMED CHURCH PUBLICATION HOUSE, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows of the Reformed Church in U. S.

THIS is the oldest charitable institution in the Reformed Church in this country. It was organized more than one hundred years ago, and was incorporated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, March 26th, 1810. Its design is to assist ministers' widows and their families, and also superannuated and disabled ministers themselves, who are members of it, and whose pecuniary resources are not sufficient to give them a living, when no longer able to serve the Church.

There are two classes of members—annual contributing and life members. By paying an initiation fee of five dollars, and thereafter annually three dollars, a minister of our Church becomes the former, and by the payment of sixty-five dollars becomes the latter.

The principal income of the Society, however, is from invested funds and collections in the churches. Collections and donations for immediate use are earnestly solicited. That more attention should be given to this society and its worthy object cannot be disputed. Let it be remembered annually by individuals and congregations.

The CHARTER officers are W. M. Deatruck, D.D., Mercersburg, Pa., President; F. A. Rupley, D.D., Martinsburg, Pa., Vice-President; Rev. T. F. Hoffmeier, Middletown, Md., Secretary; Rev. S. S. Miller, St. Petersburg, Pa., Treasurer; and Revs. J. David Miller, Marysville, Pa., and S. E. Stofflet, Waynsboro', Pa., Adsessors.

Honorary or Synodical Vice-Presidents to represent the interests of the Society in their respective synods: Eastern, Jas. Crawford, D. D.; Pittsburg, Rev. A. M. Schmidt; Ohio, S. B. Yockey, D.D.; Central, J. H. Stepler, D. D.; Interior, Rev. D. B. Shuey; and German—East, Rev. W. Walenta.

BETHESDA DEACONESS HOUSE, FRANKLIN AVENUE, CLEVELAND, OHIO.

BETHESDA DEACONESS HOUSE.

THE Reformed pastors of Cleveland, O., feeling that the Church needed the devoted heart and trained hand of the deaconess to minister to the poor and nurse the sick in that city, organized in July, 1892, a Deaconess Society. Not intended to be strictly denominational, it was, however, deemed best to have the control of it in the hands of members of the Reformed Church. Its Board of Directors consists of four laymen, four women and four ministers, all members of the Reformed Church. Its membership is about two hundred and thirty; each annually contributing one dollar.

Miss C. Broeckle, an educated and experienced Deaconess-nurse of high standing, from Germany, was called to the work of the Society, and in November, 1893, she began her efficient labors by nursing in private families. It soon became evident that more such devoted women were needed for the work. And these must be educated and trained for it. To do this it became necessary to have a hospital. Accordingly, in February, 1894, the "Bethesda Deaconess House" was opened in a small, frame building. Soon the building was found to be too small, and a larger building had to be secured. A suitable one, at a rental of forty-five dollars a month, was found facing the beautiful "Circle" on Franklin Avenue. It was occupied in August, 1894. It is roomy and complete.

A member of the First Reformed (German) Church of the city has donated a lot 100 x 150 feet, which will, in time, be made available for this worthy cause.

This is the origin of the first Reformed Deaconess House. May many more grow out of this small beginning!

Any further particulars can be ascertained by addressing Rev. J. H. C. Roentgen, D. D., 105 Fulton St., Cleveland, O.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

THE Board of Foreign Missions is constituted as follows: President, Rev. Jas. I. Good, D. D.; Vice-President, Rev. J. H. Prugh, D. D.; Secretary, Rev. S. N. Callender, D. D.; Treasurer, Elder Jos. L. Lemberger, Ph. M.; Revs. A. R. Bartholomew, P. Greding, D. D., Jacob Dahlman, D. D., J. S. Kieffer, D. D., C. R. Dieffenbacher, D. D., Elders B. Kuhns, J. Y. Dietz, J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

The work in Japan is going forward with the most inspiring success. The educational policy adopted eight years ago has reached its fruition. The primary aim is to raise up a native ministry, and to nurture girls into a Christian womanhood; and secondarily, to train up a Christian laity, both male and female. Our two schools are of the proportions of colleges, and each year graduates are leaving their halls. The last year the number of students was about the same as the year preceding.

The Mission was reinforced during the year 1894 by the sending out of Rev. S. S. Snyder, as Christian Endeavor Missionary, and his wife, and Miss Lena Zurfluh. The latter of whom sailed from San Francisco, Cal., August 15, 1894, and the former from Vancouver, B. C., September 17, 1894. A second male missionary, Mr. Christopher Noss, is under appointment, but is not expected to go to Japan until the after-part of 1895. Miss Lena Zurfluh takes the place occupied by Rev. Dr. J. P. Moore and wife, and Dr. Moore resumes actively his work as head of the Evangelistic Department.

The number of conversions was greater during the year 1893-94 than the preceding. Every aspect of the work is promising, and with a favorable response by the home Church, and the continued blessing of our heavenly Master, the Board is encouraged to look for still increasing results in winning souls to Christ.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ANDREW AND PHILIP.

THE object of this organization of young men is to "spread Christ's kingdom among young men." It continues to increase in numbers and usefulness in the Reformed Church, and in the favor of other denominations. Chapters are now regularly enrolled in eleven denominations, viz., the two Reformed Churches, Congregational, Presbyterian (North and South), Methodist Protestant, Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, United Brethren, United Presbyterian, and Lutheran Churches. There are Executive Councils in the Reformed, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches, looking after their own denominational work. These Councils and the Chapters in the other churches co-operate and unite in a Federal Council, which carries forward the general work and issues The Brotherhood Star. This paper is the official representative of the Order, and it is now firmly established as a journal for young men.

The Reformed Church has reason to be gratified that she has given this Society to the churches of our land. There are now 5,000 men enrolled in the 220 Chapters, scattered in some twenty-five States of the Union. Chapters have been formed in Theological Seminaries, as at Yale, Chicago, New Brunswick, etc., and a number of Chapters have engaged in Sunday-school work. The Convention of the Reformed Chapters, Lancaster, November 9-11, was largely attended. The officers of the Reformed Executive Council are President, Rev. J. H. String, Philadelphia; Secretary, W. O. Anderson, Baltimore, Md.; Treasurer, Charles Knight, Bethlehem, Pa.

The officers of the Federal Council are:

Rev. Rufus W. Miller, Pres't; T. A. Wonder, Gen. Sec'y and Treas., 1423 Mosher Street, Baltimore, Md. The General Secretary will respond to all inquiries, and give instructions for the organizing of Chapters.

BENEFICIARY EDUCATION.

THE Church has her Boards of Education, whose duty it is to receive funds and devote them toward aiding pious young men in their preparation for the Gospel Ministry.

Each of the Synods has its Board. That of the Eastern Synod is known as the Parent Board.

Funds are needed by all of them. Were large amounts at their command, the number of young men in our institutions, preparing for the ministry, would be much greater.

The attention of those who would thus further the cause of Christ, by giving of their means with which the Lord has prospered them, is called to this sacred cause, committed to the several Boards of Education. For the addresses of the several Treasurers, see—WHERE TO SEND CHURCH MONEY.

LESSON HELPS FOR OUR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

THE lesson helps are now published under the auspices of the Sunday-school Board of the General Synod. The same lessons and comments are used all over the Church, east and west, north and south. There is a great improvement in them over those formerly published. They consequently are calculated to aid greatly teachers and scholars, in the study of their lessons. Teachers have the Heidelberg Teacher for their use. The large scholars have the Scholars' Quarterly and the Advanced Lesson Papers, whilst the infant scholars have the Primary Lesson Paper for their use. The comments upon the lessons are from the standpoint of the Church, and consequently the Helps containing them are the only proper ones for Sunday-schools of the Reformed Church to use. This should claim the attention of officers of the Sunday-schools of the Church. Reformed Schools should use nothing else.

Board of Home Missions of General Synod.

THIS Board has under its care all the English missions of the Church. It consists of the following members: Revs. J. A. Peters, D. D., E. R. Eschbach, D. D., J. H. Sechler, D. D., J. J. Leberman, D. D., S. B. Yockey, D. D., J. Bachman, D. D., T. J. Barkley, D. D., and C. F. Kriete, and Elders C. M. Boush, H. C. Hoover, J. T. Reber and Horace Ankeny.

The Executive Committee is as follows: Rev. J. A. Peters, D. D., Pres't, Rev. T. J. Barkley, D. D., Sec'y, Revs. S. B. Yockey, D. D., J. J. Leberman, D. D., and Elder C. M. Boush. Elder Boush is also the Treasurer of the Church Extension Department. Jas. T. Reber is Treasurer.

The Board had on its roll during the year ninety-eight missions. Of these eleven were unrolled during the year and seven became self-supporting. There are now ninety-one on the roll, four more than last year.

The Hungarian work has greatly prospered. Three missionaries are now at work, namely: Rev. Jurany, at Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. Farenzi, at Pittsburg, and Rev. Kovacs, at Yorkton, Canada. There is great need that two additional missionaries be stationed in the eastern portions of the Church, to gather up the scattered Hungarian brethren in East Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. These will have to be procured in the near future.

Rev. Paul Sommerlotte is at the head of the Harbor mission at the port of New York. He is doing a good work among the immigrants.

During the last year the Board expended $36,000 for missions in the English Synods. It asks for the coming year $1,000 for Harbor Mission,

THE LATE REV. JOHN C. HENSELL, OF MT. CRAWFORD, VA.
Died March 29th, 1894.

$3,000 for Hungarian missions, and $40,000 for the regular work, making $44,000 in all. The needs of the work demand this sum.

The Church Extension Work is as important as ever. The Board used over $13,000 during the past year for this object. As the Church is entering the large cities there is great need that this fund be greatly increased. No better investment can be made by persons of wealth than to give a portion to this good cause.

The outlook for the future of our mission work is very hopeful indeed. A great many towns and cities are now asking that missions be established within their borders. Fifty additional missions could be established at once in the large centers of population had we the men and the means. It does seem that the Master is opening up the field before us in order that we may go in and possess the land.

Another matter that should be a cause of encouragement to the Church is the greatly increased sum now used for the upbuilding of the Church. Including the expenditures of all parts of the Church for home and foreign work, the sum is little below $110,000, an average of about fifty cents per member. Not a very large average, yet it is much more than the Church did a few years ago. As a Church we have great reason for thankfulness for the marked progress we have made.

A thousand miles of mighty wood,
Where thunder-storms stride fire-shod;
A thousand plants at every rod,
A stately tree at every rood:
Ten thousand leaves to every tree,
And each a miracle to me,—
Yet there be men who doubt of God!

—Joaquin Miller.

The Christian Endeavor Movement in Our Church.

OUR Church was one of the first to follow Rev. F. E. Clarke in the organization of a Christian Endeavor Society. Two years after the organization of the first society in the Congregational Church of Portland, Me., the first Reformed society was launched at Columbiana, O., November 14th, 1882. In 1889, another was organized in Reading, Pa. The movement did not take a very firm hold upon the Church until 1892. At the end of this year there were 104 societies, with 3,000 members. Ninety-three were added during the next year, and the membership was increased to 7,091. Since that time there has been a steady growth. On September 1st, 1894, there were 315 societies, with 12,250 members. Indications point to a rapid increase during the next year. Fifty of these societies are in our German-speaking congregations, Cleveland alone having five German societies. The Reformed C. E. rally, held in Cleveland, O., during the International Convention in July, 1894, at which 1,000 Reformed people were in attendance, gave a marked impulse to our C. E. work.

An Executive Committee was appointed at the Rally to give definite direction to the development of our C. E. interests. A committee was appointed at the last General Synod to report at the next meeting of synod on this movement.

The societies have raised nearly $1,500 during the past year, for the purpose of supporting a missionary, designated the "C. E. Missionary," in Japan. Rev. S. S. Snyder, of Columbiana, O., was chosen.

The underlying principle of the Society is loyalty to the local congregation. A booklet giving a complete and yet concise description of the principles and methods of Christian Endeavor, can be secured from the author, Rev. J. H. Bomberger, Columbiana, O., by sending 15 cents.

OCTOBER.

WORSHIP OF GOD.

THE prime object of the assembly of the Christian congregation is to worship God. That this prime object may be accomplished, other things are necessary, helpful, desirable; but they are adjuncts, and not the main thing. Prayer, song, reading, of the Scriptures, preaching, almsgiving, are indispensable means in the public service of a well-constituted Christian congregation; the worship of Almighty God is the supreme act accomplished by the sincere use of these means; and this worship is to be by the individual and by the collective assembly. Going to church, then, should signify going to worship. Whoever believes in God, and cares to worship him publicly and statedly should go to church.

THE LATE REV. JULIUS LANGE, OF STAFFORD, OREGON.
Died in Germany, January 11th, 1894.

PERFECT LOVE.

PERFECT love is love learning, love adoring, love trusting, love praying, love bearing, love working, and love trying to do each of these things better and better. This love casts out fear, because it is doing its best. No father can ask more in a child, and such a child has the perfect love of his father.

MOVE UP!

THAT is what every person entering a church service ought to do. That is where you can hear best and see least, that is of those behind you. You will thus leave the rear seats for those who come later. Remember when about to sit down in the pew that it is well to move up towards the inner end. Do not sit down in the end of the pew next to the aisle. You may keep friends and strangers from entering.

OUR ORPHANS' HOMES.

Bethany, Womelsdorf, Pa.—Rev. T. M. Yundt, Superintendent. Number of children, 105.

St. Paul's, Butler, Pa.—Rev. P. C. Prugh, D. D., Superintendent. Number of children, 85.

Reformed, Fort Wayne, Ind.—Rev. J. Rettig, Superintendent. Number of children, 58.

Zoar, Detroit, Mich.—Rev. Wm. Hansen, Superintendent. Number of children, 46.

Remember these at Christmas time.

SOME people say that they are building a temple to God, but they live in the basement story of it.

WHEN business is active, and investments profitable, some people object to giving for the support of the Church upon the score that they cannot afford to part with that which is bringing them such a large percentage; and when business is dull and investments are not profitable, they object to giving because they say they cannot afford it.

In all you do yourself prove true
To that which you profess;
In all you say the sequel weigh,
That you may others bless.

You cannot be a good leader until you have first been a good follower.

THERE are people who would do wonderful things for the Lord if they could only do them without costing much.

TWO OF OUR AGED RETIRED MINISTERS.

REV. H. ST. J. RINKER, MAUERTOWN, VA.

REV. A. B. SHENKLE, MILLERSVILLE, PA.

The Genral Sunday-school Work.

THE general interests of the Sunday-schools of the Church are committed to the Sunday-school Board of the General Synod. This Board has entered vigorously upon the work. Last year Rev. Rufus W. Miller entered upon the work as the Sunday-school Secretary of the Church, the first incumbent of the office.

As fruits of the work, and as evidencing the hearty support of the schools of the church, nearly all the schools of the church united in the observance of Children's Day, the second Sunday in June, using the service, "Gather Them In," prepared by the Secretary, and making an offering to the General Sunday-school work. Nearly 80,000 copies of the service were used, and the offerings amounted to the generous sum of $3,500.

It has already organized four mission schools, and aided by grants of literature, etc., seven others. A movement has been inaugurated for the increase of the Sunday-school membership. There has been a marked increase of Sunday-school scholars.

The work of the Board is divided into four departments: Statistics, Missionary and Sunday-school Work, Instruction, and Publication. Efforts have been put forth in each of these, and the outlook is bright. The entire church should unite in this most important and most fruitful work.

All inquiries in reference to Sunday-school work, lesson helps, home department, supplies, literature, etc., will be cheerfully answered by addressing the Sunday-school Secretary, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia, or Dayton, O.

The Sunday-school Board of the General Synod:

Rev. C. Clever, D. D., Pres't, Baltimore, Md.; Rev. C. F. Kriete, Vice-Pres't, Louisville, Ky.; Rev. D. B. Lady, D. D., Rec. Sec'y, Greenville, Pa.; Rev. J. H. ## GERMAN REFORMED SALEM CHURCH.

IN 1817 a number of members withdrew from the First Reformed Church, Race Street below Fourth, on account of introducing the English language into the church service. They first met and worshiped in Old Commissioners' Hall, Third St. below Green. September 13, 1818, they elected the first consistory and were received in connection with U. S. Synod. Their first Pastor was Rev. F. W. Vander-sloot. He entered on his duties January, 1819. Under his pastorate the first church building, on St. John St. below Green, was erected. It was dedicated October, 1819. In January 1824, Rev. H. A. Bibighaus, formerly teacher and chorister, became pastor, and served the congregation very acceptably up to his death, August 20, 1851. In the latter part of his life, he was assisted by Rev. Kessler, and for nearly five years by Rev. W. J. Mann, who afterward became pastor of the Lutheran Zion Church and Professor in the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. Rev. Bonekemper was the assistant at the time of Rev. Bibighaus' death, and failing to receive a call to the regular pastorate, he withdrew with his friends and organized Reformed Zion Church, Sixth Street above Girard Avenue. After this the Rev. J. Gantenbein preached for a short time. It was then Revs. Friedeland Rahn became candidates. Rev. Rahn was elected, and Rev. Friedel withdrew with his adherents and organized the Reformed Bethlehem congregation. In 1855 Rev. Rahn resigned and the Rev. Dr. Spiedel supplied the pulpit until September 21, 1856, when the Rev. J. G. Wiehle became pastor. Under his influence the congregation, weakened by disruption and separation, became strong and united again. October 24, 1869, the fiftieth anniversary of the congregation was celebrated, and an earnest effort was made toward erecting a new church building. October 11, 1874, the new house of worship, a beautiful building, 64 x 90 feet, on Fairmount Avenue below Fourth Street, was dedicated to the service of God. On September 25, 1881, Dr. Wiehle celebrated his twenty-fifth jubilee as pastor of the church, and gradually withdrew from the active service of the congregation. He died July 17, 1888, aged 72 years.

In the spring of 1880, the present pastor, Rev. F. W. Berleman, D. D., was called as assistant pastor to Dr. Wiehle and became his successor, September, 1880.

The congregation supports three Sunday-schools, has been influential among the German population, and has always contributed largely toward mission, education and other benevolent purposes.

October 21, 1894, the seventy-fifth jubilee of the dedication of the first church building, and the twentieth anniversary of the dedication of the present one, was celebrated in a suitable and attractive manner.

GERMAN REFORMED SALEM CHURCH.

Fourth Street and Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. F. W. BERLEMAN, D. D., PASTOR.

Under his influence the congregation, weakened by disruption and separation,

THERE is only one way of gaining peace and happiness now and salvation hereafter, and that way is through Christ. Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life."

The Missionary Guardian.

THIS Magazine is for our whole Church. It is devoted to the interest of Missions, Home and Foreign, and is under the editorial supervision of the Boards of the Church, with Chas. G. Fisher, D. D., as managing Editor, with the following assistants: D. S. Fouse, D. D., and S. N. Callender, D. D. It also has a department in the interests of Woman's Missionary Society, which is in charge of Miss Rebecca Hamilton Schively, Secretary of W. M. S. G. S. It contains twenty-four pages, and is issued monthly at 50 cents a year. It is published by the Reformed Church Publication House, 907 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Every one interested in missions should be a subscriber. The missionary societies of the Church should take an active part in its circulation.

Send to the publishers for specimen copies. Encourage this new enterprise in behalf of the great work of missions.

WHY is it that healthy, strong Christian men and women will on the Lord's Day stay away from their Church on account of weather which on a week-day does not keep them in their houses and from their worldly avocations or pleasure engagements? Are Sunday rains more injurious than Monday ones? Is the physical weaker on the Lord's Day than other days, and less able to face a storm? Is religion a thing of fine clothes and clean carriages, and pleasant drives and walks?

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH, SHAMOKIN, PA.

Rev. C. B. SCHNEDER, Pastor.

Does the injunction "forsake not the assembling of yourselves together" apply only to good weather Sabbaths? Are fair weather Christians sure of a title to mansions in the skies, where congregations ne'er break up and Sabbaths have no end.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE, LANCASTER, PA.

Premium Tracts, Nos. 1, 2 and 3; also, "Why Go to Church?" and Booklets, "Why am I Reformed?" "The Church Question," and "Origin and Glory of the Reformed Church."

These should be circulated. Every member should have a copy of them to read and profit by. They will do good. Write to REFORMED CHURCH PUBLICATION HOUSE, Philadelphia, for a supply.

THE reason why so many Christians are lean in soul is, so few of them hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Theological Seminary

OF THE

REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES,
LANCASTER, PA.

—FOUNDED AT CARLISLE, MARCH, 1825—

THE Institution is conducted under the supervision and direction of the three (English) Eastern Synods: The Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, organized in 1747; the Synod of Pittsburgh, organized in 1870; and the Synod of the Potomac, organized in 1873.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees consisting of EIGHTEEN Elders, or Laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority and oversight of a Board of Visitors, consisting of TWELVE ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and members of the three Synods, by each in proportion to its strength as to numbers.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years, and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry. The confessional standard of doctrine is the Heidelberg Catechism.

The Seminary year begins on the first Thursday of September. Boarding can be obtained at $3.50 per week. For further information, address the President of the Faculty.

COLT'S NECK, N. J., July 4th, 1893.

MR. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, New York,

Dear Sir:—I enclose check in full for Reflector. We received it in perfect order, and had it hung without trouble. We have used it two Sabbath evenings. The congregations were delighted, both with its fine appearance and the brilliancy, yet softness of its light, which enables one to read "pearl type" in the remotest corner of the church. It far surpasses our highest expectations, as we do not require any other lamps for the pulpit or elsewhere, except two for the choir and organ, and these are rendered necessary only on account of the position of the latter.

Thanking you for your courtesy, liberality and prompt attention in filling our order,

Yours very sincerely, and it will be filled promptly and at regular prices, or a reason given you why it cannot be supplied. Please remember this, and also that what may be said of ONE book applies also to libraries of hundreds of volumes for Ministers, Laymen and Sunday Schools. We give you fair prices, and when you do NOT give your order to us, YOU DO NOT GAIN ANYTHING PECUNIARILY, AND KEEP US FROM MAKING the trade discount. We do not ask you for your trade through selfishness, but because we are anxious that our people everywhere may see how easily they can help "build up" a more extensive business for their own Publication House.

Do not forget that the REFORMED CHURCH PUBLICATION HOUSE is a creature of the Church, and in the plan we propose, you give your Church Institution patronage, SUPPORT and profit; without any pecuniary outlay over and above what you would have to pay for the same goods elsewhere, and where the profits would not accrue to the Church.
